TEA TABLE

Tea tables originated in ancient China, dating back to the Tang Dynasty. At that time, tea tables were mostly rectangular or square, with solid wood as the main material. With the development of tea culture, the styles and materials of tea tables have been constantly innovated, gradually forming today's diversified tea tables.

Its imitation wood texture is clear, the appearance is natural and simple, and it can be well integrated into the natural environment. The solid performance of the stone crystal table top is combined with environmentally friendly materials, which is resistant to rain and sun, washable, easy to clean, corrosion-resistant, non-deformable, and anti-oxidation, and can be used outdoors for a long time. .

HANGING BASKET

The styles of courtyard leisure hanging baskets are rich and diverse, and can be adapted to different courtyard styles. In a pastoral-style courtyard, hanging baskets made of rattan or floral-patterned fabrics can complement the flowers and green plants, creating a rich rural pastoral atmosphere. In a modern minimalist style courtyard, simple wooden or fabric hanging baskets, paired with simple metal brackets and solid color cushions, can reflect a simple and fashionable feel.
